The burden of the vision of anarchy. Downing street was invited to participate, but declined on the ground that the measures contemplated might be an infringement of personal rights. Within the well-defined limits, however, England promised its support to whatever might be agreed upon by Italy, Belgium and Germany.

Fortress and Customhouse Bombarded at Puerto Cabello.

English Commodore Demanded Satisfaction Because the Union Jack Was Lowered on the Merchant Steamer Topaz by a Mob—Fort is Silenced but no Damage is Done to the Town.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PUERTO CABELLO, Saturday, Dec. 13.—[By South American Cable.] The British cruiser Charybdis and the German cruiser Vineta have bombarded the fortress here. They quickly silenced it.

The Charybdis and the Vineta arrived here this morning. The captain of the English merchant steamer Topaz, which was seized by the mob last Wednesday, visited the English commodore on board the Charybdis, and returned an hour later with a detachment of fifty marines who took charge of the Topaz. The populace was greatly excited at this incident, and raised the cry "to arms," but no incident occurred.

The English commodore then sent a demand to the authorities for immediate satisfaction for having pulled down the British flag from the Topaz, and advised the government that if satisfaction were not forthcoming in two hours the fortress and the customhouse would be bombarded. The authorities, on the receipt of this demand, sent a message to President Castro asking for instructions.

At 5 o'clock the Charybdis and the Vineta opened fire on the fortress and customhouse. The fort replied, but was soon silenced. No damage was done to the town.

The United States Consul went on board the two cruisers, and was informed by their commanders that they had come to this port in search of the Venezuelan warships.

REPORTS FROM BOWEN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Minister Bowen, in a dispatch received by the State Department this afternoon, cabled that he had been informed by President Castro that British and German warships were bombarding Puerto Cabello.

In an earlier dispatch, received by the State Department at 3:22 o'clock Sunday morning, Minister Bowen said that the situation at the Venezuelan capital, Caracas, was much quieter. The great excitement noted at the outset of the affair, he said, was caused by the precipitate flight of the British and German ministers, the arrest of all the subjects of those two nations and the seizure of the Venezuelan gunboat without first declaring a blockade, thus causing the people to fear a bombardment would follow at once.

BLOCKADE OF LA GUAYRA.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CARACAS, Dec. 13.—A note from the commanders of the allied fleet, which the Venezuelan government refused to receive yesterday at La Guayra, was sent today to United States Minister Bowen at Caracas and forwarded by him to the proper government officials here. The note, which is in the name of Great Britain and Germany, requests all Venezuelan ships, after the lapse of five days, to refrain from sailing to the port of La Guayra until the present difficulties are over. The question, "what right have Great Britain and Germany to coerce Venezuela without declaring a blockade," is being asked on all sides here.

El Nocho Hernandez and certain other revolutionary leaders left Maracaibo today for Curacao on their way to Caracas. Hernandez is probably the most popular of the revolutionary leaders. President Castro has kept him imprisoned at Maracaibo for several years past.

The news of the shelling of the fortress and customhouse at Puerto Cabello this afternoon by the British cruiser Charybdis and the German cruiser Vineta reached Caracas at a late hour tonight. It caused much excitement, and in spite of the preventive measures taken by the police of Puerto Cabello, trouble is feared at that port.

CASTRO DEMANDS PRUDENCE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CARACAS, Dec. 14.—The news of the bombardment of Puerto Cabello caused most intense excitement here. The population flocked into the streets, and patriotic demonstrations continued all night. An immense crowd, whose numbers are estimated at more than 10,000, gathered in front of the Presidential palace and called on President Castro to appear. Some of the orators among the crowd having advocated reprisals against the foreigners resident in Venezuela, President Castro, in rage at the suggestion, refused the demands made, in the following speech:

"Citizens, the size of nations, like the size of men, is measured only by their acts. Those born brave prove their valor on the battlefield, not against defenseless citizens, who perhaps are innocent, are in their hearts with us, and who are ashamed of the infamy of their compatriots.

"We will seek prisoners for Venezuelan jails on the battlefield. Our action will be directed only against those who come armed. However great may be our indignation, we must behave as a cultured and civilized people, especially now, when the most powerful nations of Europe are behaving like real savages. I counsel great prudence in order not to abandon our rights, the justice of our cause and our reputation."

"The good name of Venezuela must remain always secure, whatever emergencies may arise in the struggle. If we fall, it will be gloriously and heroically, but I assure you that our country will be saved, because the Supreme Being above, who sees and directs all, cannot abandon us in this fatal emergency, justice and right being on our side.

"I, who never trembled before danger, swear I will fulfill my duty and joyfully sacrifice my life for the honor and dignity of the nation. I require great circumspection, prudence and even cordiality, so that strangers residing in our country, Americans, Italians, French, Spaniards, and even the Germans and English, may be the first to proclaim in the face of the world that Venezuela is a cultured and civilized nation."

The speech was applauded, and a procession of whites and negroes traversed the city without an act of violence being committed.

The Associated Press correspondent saw the President today. He is calm, and is giving all his time to the organization of resistance. Fourteen hundred men enlisted today from Caracas alone, including boys and fifteen priests.

The conduct of the British and German commanders is severely censured by all the Venezuelan press. The Associated Press correspondent saw today Alfred Blohm, the banker who went to La Guayra, and saw the commanders of the British and German cruisers. He said he did not hesitate on meeting Charles von Pilgrim-Baltazzi on board the German cruiser Vineta to tell him that the conduct of the German legation in this question had been shameful, and that the matter could have been arranged if Herr von Pilgrim-Baltazzi had only seen President Castro, who, like the German colony, was ignorant of Germany's designs.

OTHER PARTICULARS OF THE BOMBARDMENT.

CASTRO AUTHORIZED GIVING OF SATISFACTION TO BRITISH.

People of Puerto Cabello Believe the Europeans Intend to Force War Upon Venezuela—King Edward's Marines Seize the Cannon of Castle Libertador.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PUERTO CABELLO, Saturday, Dec. 13.—[By South American Cable.] The British cruiser Charybdis and the German cruiser Vineta have bombarded the fortress here at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and quickly silenced it. The bombardment lasted for forty minutes. The fortress is composed of Fort Sanguino and the Castle Libertador. After the firing ceased, the Charybdis sent marines to occupy the castle. The fortress was almost demolished. It is probable that only a few persons were injured by the shelling. The commander of Castle Libertador has been taken prisoner. The cruisers are still here.

At 5 o'clock this morning the Charybdis and the Vineta arrived here, searching for Venezuelan gunboats. The two cruisers sent their boats into the inner port, but finding no gunboats, the boats returned. The captain of the British merchant steamer Topaz, which was seized by the mob last Wednesday, then visited the British commodore on board the Charybdis, and lodged a protest against the violation of his ship. The British captain returned an hour later with a detachment of fifty marines, who took charge of the Topaz. The populace was greatly excited, and raised the cry, "To arms!" but there was no disorder.

The British commodore then sent a message to the authorities at Puerto Cabello, demanding immediate satisfaction for the action of the mob in having hauled down the British flag from the customhouse, saying that if satisfaction was not forthcoming in two hours, at 5 o'clock the fortress and the customhouse would be bombarded. On the receipt of this demand, the authorities sent a message to President Castro asking for instructions.

A committee of the merchants of Puerto Cabello then approached the American Consul here, petitioning him to intervene. The Consul accepted the mission, and visited the cruisers, but he could obtain no alteration in the decision of the allies. At 4:45 o'clock, a reply was received from President Castro, who authorized the chief officer here to give the British commodore ample satisfaction. Before this answer could be communicated to the American Consul, the hour stipulated for the bombardment had elapsed. The cruisers immediately opened fire on the fortress. The fire was returned from Fort Sanguino and Castle Libertador, but the Venezuelan guns were soon silenced. While the firing continued, the British and German ships in this port. Every house in town was closed.

Mr. Proctor Forcing Militia Bill.

Statehood Proposition Chief Order of Business in Senate Except on Wednesday.

Both Houses Will Adjourn Next Saturday for the Usual Christmas Holidays.

Appropriation for the Agricultural Department's Needs to be Put Through.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—After the routine morning business in the Senate is disposed of tomorrow morning, Senator Proctor will ask the Senate to take up his bill for the reorganization of the militia force of the United States, and he will continue to bring it forward each day in the morning hour with the hope of securing action early in the week, and of having it become a law before adjournment for the Christmas holidays.

At 3 o'clock the Statehood Bill will again be taken up, and Senator Dillingham will address the Senate in opposition to the admission of New Mexico and Arizona. He will speak at length, quoting from the testimony taken by the subcommittee which visited those Territories, and giving his personal experiences as a member of that committee. The Statehood Bill will continue each day of the week except Wednesday, to be the order of business after 2 o'clock. Wednesday, by special order, has been set aside for business to the late Senator Howell of New Jersey.

The programme on the Statehood Bill is for Senator Nelson, also a member of the Committee on Territories, to follow Senator Dillingham. Senator Nelson will be succeeded by Senator Burnham and Keen. After these members of the committee, other Senators will speak in opposition to the bill. Senator Beveridge, chairman of the committee, will close the debate. He also will be heard frequently during the course of the debate on points as they come up. The Senate will adjourn Saturday for the holidays, and not even the friends of the bill expect confidence of action on the measure before that time.

In case opportunity offers, Senator Penrose will make an effort to get up the Immigration Bill at odd times during the week, with the hope of securing action on it, but the prospect now is that it will go over until after the Christmas adjournment. In all probability the bill making an appropriation for the prosecution of the Agricultural Department's fight on the foot-and-mouth cattle disease in New England will be passed during the week.

The prospects are for an untroubled week in the House. Tomorrow is District of Columbia Day, and the bill to give the Secretary of Agriculture power to make regulations to prevent the spread of contagious diseases in live stock has been set for Tuesday. Beyond this and the consideration of the Urgent Deficiency Bill, which will follow, there is no fixed programme.

The Strike Commission Bill may be called and some odd and end legislation disposed of before the adjournment for the Christmas holidays, next Saturday.

PRESIDENT'S LATEST VICTORY.

CANAL AT PANAMA ASSURED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President soon will achieve another important undertaking for which his administration has been striving. The completion of the Panama Canal by this government as a great Isthmian waterway now is assured. Dr. Thomas Herran, who has been acting as Chargé d'Affaires for Colombia since the departure of Minister Cancha from Washington, has received from the government full authority to complete the negotiations between Colombia and the United States for a Panama Canal treaty. It can be stated on the highest authority that nothing of a serious nature now stands in the way of an early agreement between Dr. Herran and Secretary Hay.

The canal treaty, it is said by administration leaders, will be ready for transmission to the Senate in time for its ratification before the present session adjourns. About the only thing that still remains undecided is the price the United States is to pay for the canal strip.

There will be distinct victory for the Roosevelt administration, which, last spring, endorsed the Spooner amendment to the Canal Bill, providing that the Panama route should be selected as satisfactory negotiations for its control by this government could be arranged by a reasonable time. The Nicaragua route had been preferred up to that time, and few persons had believed that any other route would be seriously considered.

WASHINGTON DISPLEASED.

NO NEED OF REARMAMENT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Action from the dispatch from Minister Bowen,

there were no important developments in the Venezuelan situation, so far as the State Department is concerned. The officials are watching events with keen interest, so as to be ready to act promptly should such a step become necessary, but nothing was done today

except to make some representations

to the German and English governments

in the matter of the "peaceful blockade" now being enforced by those governments in Venezuelan waters.

Secretary Hay took the dispatches from Mr. Bowen, making it known to the House during the day, and discussed

the situation in Venezuela for some time with the members, but he had nothing to make public on the subject.

In the matter of the blockade, the Secretary has instructed our Ambassadors at Berlin and London to represent to those governments that the United States must not be understood as giving this consent to any extension of the international right of "peaceful blockade." It is not known that this instruction was called forth by an incident making such representation necessary. It was made simply as a precautionary measure, and gives the developments since making its position a matter of importance.

It was confidently hoped that before this time some answer would have been received from the German and British governments to President Castro's request that the claims of those governments be submitted to arbitration. This request was transmitted ing the latter days of last week, and in turn was handed to the embassies

RESORT TO ARBITRATION.

HINT FOR SECRETARY HAY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The popular apprehension that the succeeding stages of the Venezuelan crisis will lead to intervention

in this country, to preserve respect for the Monroe doctrine, so far as that apprehension is voiced by Senators and Representatives, has been dismissed in a great degree by the assurance that members of Congress

have received from the President and Secretary Hay, that this government is neither likely to have its interests jeopardized, nor to become actively interfered with, until the government has been able to begin a policy that can

at present be imagined.

So strong an impression has been given by the President to those who have heeded the subject, that he has fully weighed and made provision to meet every possible development

that could arise from the Anglo-German cooperative process of improving

Venezuela, that a feeling of the highest confidence in his judgment is being manifested by Republican legislators, who are beginning to believe that the United States is being

guided according to a fixed programme,

which leaves very little or almost no doubt as to its outcome.

understanding which has been firmly

BRITISH MAINTAIN BLOCKADE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

LONDON, Dec. 14.—(By South American Cable.) In a dispatch from Willemstad, Curacao, dated December 14, the correspondent of the Daily Mail says

the Anglo-German blockade of Venezuela is an ultimatum for the government of La Guayra. The steamer Yucatan was warned by the British cruiser Indefatigable not to enter La Guayra,

and returned to Curacao.

The Venezuelan government has declined the offer of a loan made by a German bank of Curacao to settle the claims against it.

ATTACK AT PUERTO CABELLO.

The entrance to the inside harbor at

Puerto Cabello is through a narrow channel, not more than a few hundred feet wide. To the left of this channel, as one enters the harbor, situated on a low sand spit, is the fortress which, it is announced, was bombarded by the German fleet on the 11th inst. It is an old-fashioned structure, which was rebuilt in the eighteenth century. Its defenses are old-fashioned and would offer but poor resistance to modern shells. It is not probable that the Venezuelan government had any modern cannon there.

The customhouse at Puerto Cabello

is situated on the right or mainland

side of the channel. It is a long, two-story brick building, and contains, besides executive offices, large warehouses, and steamers discharging at Puerto Cabello tie up immediately in front of the customhouse. The town itself is flat, and stretches from the water front to the base of the hills,

a distance of two or three miles.

The outside harbor at Puerto Cabello

is the effect that Foreign Secretary

Landow has failed to display, either in the War Office or in the Foreign Office, such conspicuous ability as to induce the nation to trust him with a blank cheque in such a complicated

and combustible matter as Venezuela threatens to prove. The Associated Press understands that the papers will be issued today, or Wednesday, at the latest.

Thus far the British public has had to depend entirely upon press dispatches for its news, and the serious complaint is made that the public is

BOYLE HEIGHTS.

Residents of Brooklyn Heights feel the need of a highway connecting the Heights more closely with the city. To this end they have organized a petition drive, and have secured the signatures of many prominent residents. The petition will be presented to the Board of Public Works at its next meeting. It is expected that the Board will order the opening of the full length of the highway, and that the city will be benefited by the new route.

Edwin Alexander, a resident of Boyle Heights, has been elected to the position of vice-president of the Boyle Heights Improvement Association. He was elected at a meeting of the association held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Allen, on Monday evening, December 8th.

Clifford spoke of the fact that the past year ago he gave a short address to the members of the Catholic Church, and showed how they were reaching out to carry on the work. Especially, said the speaker, do we need to be a barrier against the contagions, religious indifference, for the salvation of the soul is the first and most important thing for their existence; and we must be kind to the stranger within our doors, many a soul hangs within our grasp.

The residents of that part of the city became greatly excited and several persons ran to different boxes and sent in alarms. Two telephone alarms were sent in and five boxes pulled. For that one fire the bells in the entire city rang for nearly twenty minutes, and even after the firemen had reached the place some persons sent in more alarms. The loss on the building will amount to $500, and on the contents $200. There is $400 insurance on the contents.
